

EARTIPPING

- An ear tip identifies a cat who has been through a TNR program.
- The top tip of the left ear is painlessly removed while under anesthesia.
- This allows caregivers, trappers, and animal control can easily identify who has been spayed and vaccinated and who has not.
- Many communities have an Eartip Protection Policy protecting cats who have been through TNR