TAKE A TRIP TO “BUS STOP”!

Annapolis, MD (Jan. 13, 2010) – Deposits are being taken now for the luncheon and theater trip to see “Bus Stop” on Feb. 24 being organized by the O’Malley Senior Activity Center in Odenton.

Participants will enjoy a luncheon at Mrs. K’s Toll House Restaurant, a country inn located on the fringe of the nation’s capitol with a menu choice of grilled chicken breast, grilled salmon or fusilli pasta. Then see “Bus Stop” at the Olney Dinner Theatre.

The plot involves a small-town diner in for quite a night when a blizzard strands a busload of unusual passengers on its doorstep. They include a lovesick rodeo rider who has kidnapped a nightclub singer, a pretentious Ph.D. who is looking for love in all the wrong places, and a Shakespeare-quoting teenage waitress getting a crack at romance. In the course of the turbulent night, will it be love or mayhem that survives the storm?

Depart the senior center at 1275 Odenton Road, Odenton, at 10 a.m. and return at 5 p.m. Total cost of the trip and luncheon is $96. To order tickets, call the senior center at 410-222-6227 today.
