County Recognizes Volunteers

Annapolis, MD (May 19, 2011) – More than 250 volunteers and guests attended the annual Volunteer Recognition Luncheon hosted by the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program of Anne Arundel County on May 19 at La Fontaine Bleu in Glen Burnie. Besides a sit-down hot lunch, the event included entertainment by the state-award-winning South County Showstoppers, vocals by two celebrity impersonators, and music by Bill Van Dyke and the 1940s Band.

Part of a national network of senior volunteers, RSVP is a program at the Anne Arundel County Department of Aging and Disabilities. RSVP cooperates with county schools, libraries, museums, departments of aging, state and county police, local hospitals, environmental projects and other agencies to develop meaningful, satisfying volunteer opportunities for seniors. Call 410-222-4464 for information.
