The second film, “The King’s Speech,” which won the 2011 Academy Award for best picture, will be shown at 12:15 p.m. July 22. Colin Firth, who won best actor, portrays George “Bertie” VI who reluctantly dons the crown after his brother abdicates to “marry the woman I love.” His stutter raises concerns about his leadership skills, but the King is helped by unconventional speech therapist Lionel Logue, played by Geoffrey Rush.
