Pascal Senior Center announces October events

Annapolis, MD (Sept. 26, 2011) – The Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie, has announced its programs for the month of October. For information, call 410-222-6680 or visit www.aacounty.org/aging.

- Ventriloquist and professional entertainer Tom Crowl will present a cavalcade of characters to keep the audience laughing at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 6 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. The program is brought to the center through the generosity of Pascal Seniors, inc., and the Arts Council of Anne Arundel County. The public can attend; donations are appreciated. Call 410-222-6680 for information.

- A six-week grief and loss support group sponsored and facilitated by Seasons Hospice and Palliative Care of Maryland will meet from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Oct. 10, 17, 24, and 31 and Nov. 14 and 21 at Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. The group will not meet on Nov. 7. For information, call 410-222-6680.

- On Oct. 12 from 8:30 to 11 a.m. members of the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie, should wear their work clothes and bring their garden gloves, rakes and shovels for a fall garden spruce up. Members will be raking, weeding, planting, and generally improving the center's flower beds and Memory Garden. The rain date is Oct. 19. Sign up at the center if you can help. Call 410-222-6680 for information.

- The Kinship Caregiver Support Group will meet from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Oct. 11 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center craft room, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. Kinship Care is generally defined as the full-time care, nurturing and protection of children by relatives or other adults who have a family relationship to a child. The county Department of Social Services has formed a group to provide support and to address the unique concerns of these caregivers. This meeting is entitled "Let Your Voices Be Heard." For information, call Chere Torsiello, Kinship Navigator, at 410-897-3933 or e-mail her at ctorsiello@dhr.state.md.us.

- Amy Rubino, program director for the Seniro Health Insurance Assistance Program at the county Department of Aging and Disabilities, will present "Medicare Open Enrollment" where she will offer important information on Medicare Part D, the prescription plan. Her event is at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 13 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. Come learn more about what you need to consider for this year's open enrollment period, which is Oct. 15 to Dec. 7. Call 410-222-4464, and ask for SHIP for information.

- The Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie, will host two movies in October: “The Tourist” at 12:15 p.m. Oct. 14 and “Marley and Me: The Puppy Years” at 12:15 p.m. Oct. 28. For information, call 410-222-6680.

- Amy Rubino, program director for the Senior Health Insurance Assistance Program at the county Department of Aging and Disabilities, will present an overview of Medicare from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Oct. 19 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. If you are new to Medicare and not sure what you need to do, Ms. Rubino will answer questions and help you make informed decisions. For information, call 410-222-6680.

- Baltimore historian and educator Wayne R. Schaumburg will give a slide show and lecture, “Where Baltimore’s Best Were Laid to Rest,” at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 20 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie.

The program will focus on historic Green Mount Cemetery, opened in 1839. It is one of the earliest examples of an urban-rural (or garden) cemetery – that is, a cemetery with a park-like setting located on the edge of the city. It became the final resting place of Johns Hopkins, Enoch Pratt, William and Henry Walters, Mary Elizabeth Garrett, Betsy Patterson, and John Wilkes Booth and many other famous Marylanders. Almost 68,000 people are buried in Green Mount’s 68 acres located at North and Greenmount avenues.

The program is free and open to the public. Call 410-222-6680 for information.

- The Pascal Go Getters will present its fall show at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 25 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie, with fast-moving familiar songs of the 1940s and 1950s. For information, call the center at 410-6680.

- A free senior fun day at Greenway Bowl, located at 8246 Telegraph Road in Odenton, will be held from 9:30 to 11:30 p.m. Oct. 25 for members of the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. Seniors will receive two free games of bowling, shoe rental and refreshments. Registration is required; limited van service is available for $2 for those who do not drive. Sign up at the office. Call 410-222-6680 for information.

- A Halloween dance is set for noon Oct. 27 at the Pascal Senior Activity Center, 125 Dorsey Road, Glen Burnie. Frank Cappadora and the 1940’s is a small band with a big band sound with music of the 1930s and 1940s. Light refreshments will be served. For information, call the center at 410-222-6680.

The Pasadena Senior Activity Center is one of seven senior centers operated by the Anne Arundel County Department of Aging and Disabilities. Call 410-222-4464 for information or visit www.aacounty.org/aging.
