O'Malley Senior Center's February activities

Annapolis, MD (Feb. 1, 2012) – The O'Malley Senior Activity Center, 1275 Odenton Road, Odenton, has announced events for February. For information, call 410-222-6227 or 301-621-9515.

- The center will show movies every Friday at 12:30 p.m. at the center. "Ides of March" will be shown Feb. 10, "Courageous" on Feb. 17, and "Cowboys and Aliens" on Feb. 24.

Volunteer Mary Markuski is coordinating the films, subject to change.

- Rosalie Falter and Sue Latini, the "Chefs on the Go," will prepare a small Italian supper at 1 p.m. Feb. 16 at the center. All recipes will be a quick fix. They include an appetizer; pasta dish with olives, tomatoes and arugula; and a healthy dessert. The cost is $3. Recipe copies will be distributed.

- Tim Amann from the group Pet Rock will play guitar and sing favorite songs from the 1950s to the 1970s from 11 a.m. to noon Feb. 14. It's easy listening and danceable as well.

- "Tropical Paradise," a winter screen painting workshop, will be taught from 12:30 to 4 p.m. in the O'Malley Center's Annex art room, 1270 Odenton Road. The class is free; bring your own supplies. Call 410-222-6227 for information.

- Platinum, a woman comedian, will perform at 11 a.m. Feb. 21 as part of the center's Black History Month observance. She's been featured in regional publications.

- A diabetes educator from Anne Arundel Medical Center will discuss diabetes awareness and available resources at a presentation at 10:45 a.m. Feb. 28 at the center. The educator will review signs and symptoms of diabetes, taking precautionary measures, and short term complications. A question-answer period is planned.

- Registration is underway now for classes for the spring session. A complete list of courses from April to June is available at the center. New this period are Irish history, Chesapeake archeology, the Constitution and founding fathers, intermediate yoga, Jane Austen and the Regency, decorative painting, women of science, an introduction to philosophy, and the great composers. All classes require an $80 administrative fee payable to Anne Arundel Community College. Those under age 60 pay an additional $40 per courses. Some classes have a supply fee.

The O'Malley Senior Activity Center is one of seven senior centers operated by the Anne Arundel County Department of Aging and Disabilities and is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Membership is free. Visit www.aacounty.org/aging for more information.
