

March 13, 2003

Re: 10-03-19

You inquired whether the ethics law would permit you to use your county computer during lunch break and after work hours to work on school assignments, when the class is work related and being paid for by the county. The ethics law does not prohibit work-related use of a county computer. Good luck with your class, and thanks for reading our newsletter.

Sincerely,

Betsy K. Dawson
Executive Director