Dear Chief Ray:

Late Sunday afternoon, July 5th, my [REDACTED] Samantha, had a [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and was attended to by members of the Annapolis Neck Fire Station. The paramedics arrived within five minutes of my husband's 911 call, and immediately assessed the situation. In particular, the treatment and care provided by paramedics Thomas Radcliffe and Ryan Newman were exemplary. Their professionalism and calming demeanor provided comfort during this traumatic time for Samantha, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

I just wanted to make you aware of their outstanding professional service and hope that you can join me in commending them for their excellent service to my family and our community.

Sincerely,

Laura L. Wicklund
