SELECTION OF MEMBERS OF ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY BOARD OF APPEALS

November 28, 2010--The Anne Arundel County Council is accepting applications from citizens interested in becoming members of the County Board of Appeals, a seven-member quasi-judicial board that hears and decides appeals from decisions of administrative agencies, such as the application of County zoning law and decisions on licenses and permits.

The Board meets three or four times a week, usually in the evening, and makes daytime on-site inspections of properties, which are the subject of hearings. Members must be registered voters in Anne Arundel County. The salary is $5,250 per annum plus $75 per diem per hearing, meeting, or on-site inspection. Members are subject to the financial disclosure provisions of the Anne Arundel County Ethics Law.

Interested persons should submit a personal resume, including political party affiliation, to Judy C. Holmes, Administrative Officer to the County Council, Arundel Center, P. O. Box 2700, Annapolis, Maryland 21404, no later than 5:00 P.M. on Thursday, December 16, 2010.

The County Council will conduct public interviews with all applicants on Monday, December 20, 2010. The Council will appoint the new members by resolution on Monday, January 3, 2011. The swearing in will be held the next day, Tuesday, January 4 at 10:00 A.M in the office of the Clerk of the Court.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Ms. Holmes at 410-222-1401 or the Board of Appeals at 410-222-1119 between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. Monday through Friday.
