Press Conference Scheduled to Discuss Major Developments in Odenton Firebombing

Annapolis — County Executive John R. Leopold, Police Chief James Teare and Fire Chief John Robert Ray will brief the media this afternoon on major developments in the firebombing of a house in Odenton last week. Police have been actively investigating criminal gang activity in the Greater Crofton Area and believe that the arson last week was related to on-going gang activity in the neighborhood. The Fire Marshall's Division handled the investigation of the arson itself.
