Home Invasion

Glen Burnie

On 3/17/08 at approximately 1437 hrs., officers responded to 306 Georgia Ave. NE in Glen Burnie, MD for a report of an armed subject with a gun. The investigation revealed that the three suspects came to the residence in a dispute over money. The suspects placed a gun against one of the victim's ribs and took personal property from another victim. The victims were able to run into the home at 306 Georgia Ave. and lock the door. The three suspects then forced open the locked door, entered the residence, pointed a handgun at the victims and told them to hand over any money they had. The victims refused and the suspects fled in a red Ford Crown Victoria. The vehicle was located at one of the suspect's homes along with all three juvenile suspects. All three suspects were positively identified by one of the victims. All three suspects were subsequently placed under arrest and taken to Northern District for processing. Two of the juveniles were charged as adults with multiple charges including Armed Robbery, 1st Degree Assault, and 1st Degree Burglary among numerous charges. The fifteen year-old juvenile was charged with the same offenses and released into the custody of his mother.
