DUI Enforcement

The Anne Arundel County Police is announcing that the department is participating in a multi-agency initiative on May 5, 2008, Cinco de Mayo, to combat drunk and drugged driving. The agency along with the Maryland State Police, Annapolis Police Department and Crofton Police Department will have additional personnel patrolling the highways in Anne Arundel County to detect impaired drivers.

This initiative is part of the cooperative effort of law enforcement agencies in Anne Arundel County to improve highway safety throughout the county and will support the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) “Checkpoint Strike Force” impaired driving interdiction initiative.
