ROBBERY

HANOVER

On May 20, 2009, at approximately 12:14 a.m., officers responded to the 7000 block of Arundel Mills Boulevard in Hanover for a report of an armed robbery.

Upon arrival, officers spoke with the two victims, both 21-year old males, who stated that they were exiting the Cinemark when they were approached by two male subjects. One suspect asked the victims if he could use their mobile phone. The victim handed the suspect his mobile phone and the suspect proceeded to put the phone in his pocket. The other suspect eventually displayed a handgun and pointed it at one of the victims. The suspects then ordered both victims to walk to the victims' vehicle, which was parked in the mall parking lot.

Next, the suspects demanded that the victims drive their vehicle to the Chevy Chase Bank in the 7500 block of Ridge Road, where the suspects used a victim's ATM card to withdrawal an undisclosed amount of US currency from the ATM. The victims then drove to the Wachovia Bank in the 7500 block of Ridge Road, where the suspects then used the other victim's bank card to withdraw additional US currency from that ATM. The vehicle was then driven to the area of Ridge Chapel Road and the victims were told to exit the vehicle. The victim's vehicle was located near where it was originally parked. Numerous officers and an Aviation unit responded, but were unable to locate the suspects.

Suspect 2: Black male, 22-25 years old, 6'2", 170 pounds with an athletic build, with a mustache, short hair, wearing a white hooded sweatshirt with skeleton scales down the shirt.
