EASTERN DISTRICT

BURGLARY

PASADENA

On November 11, 2009, at approximately 2:30 a.m., officers from the Eastern District responded to Captain Bucks Tavern located in the 8100 block of Ft. Smallwood Road in Pasadena for a report of an alarm.

Through investigation, it was determined that unknown subject(s) made a forced entry into the business and took an undetermined amount of money. Responding officers established a perimeter and conducted a thorough search of the business and surrounding area, but were unable to locate the suspect(s). At this time, the investigation into the burglary is ongoing. Anyone with information on this incident or suspect(s) is asked to contact the Eastern District at 410-222-6145.

NORTHERN DISTRICT

ROBBERY

GLEN BURNIE

On November 10, 2009, at approximately 2:20 a.m., officers from the Northern District responded to the 7800 block of Oakwood Road in Glen Burnie for a report of a robbery that occurred earlier.

Upon arrival, officers spoke with the male victim, who advised that he was walking home from the Royal Farms store when he was approached and attacked by several male subjects on the side of the road. One suspect took a jacket from the victim after he fell to the ground during the assault. The victim fled the scene on foot and sustained minor injuries during the incident. Numerous officers canvassed the area, but were unable to locate the suspects.

Suspect #1: Black male, approximately 5'6", 140 pounds

Suspect #2: Black male, 6'0", approximately 200 pounds and not wearing a shirt
Suspects #3-6: Black males with average builds
