

Citizen Police Academy

Class #15

Training Begins, March 6, 2008

14 Sessions

Thursday Evenings

6:30pm - 9:30pm

Have you ever wondered what it might be like to be a police officer?

Have you ever wondered what policing is all about?

Here is your chance to find out!

The Anne Arundel County Police Department is proud to announce the 15th session of the Citizen Police Academy (CPA). This program was designed to increase the understanding of the daily operations of the Anne Arundel County Police Department and explain in detail our role in our communities' well being. Classes will be lead by officers who are experts in their assigned field and students will get an "up close and personal" look at what it means to be an Anne Arundel County Police Officer.

ACADEMY SCHEDULE

Academy classes will be held every Thursday night from 6:30pm to 9:30pm at the Anne Arundel County Police Academy in Davidsonville, Maryland. Classes include: History of the Department, Stress Management, Forensics, Crime Scene Investigations, Special Operations and even a chance to get behind the wheel for Emergency Vehicle Operations. Demonstrations will be provided throughout the academy from members of various specialized units such as the Aviation Unit and our K-9 Unit.

HOW TO APPLY

Students incur no cost for participating in this program but they will graduate with a wealth of knowledge. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age. Contact the following members of the academy staff for information and registration applications. Applications must be received by February 22, 2008.
