

Substance Abuse Education

ORCC offers substance abuse programming for qualifying inmates, including a 32-hour substance abuse education workshop and referral to appropriate treatment upon completion of sentence. Referral of JRDC inmates to this program may be part of sentenced inmates' IPAs, providing they qualify for progression to ORCC.

In cooperation with the Health Department, JRDC offers open-enrollment substance abuse education and counseling for inmates who abuse drugs or alcohol.