

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, MD – OFFICE OF FINANCE

COLLECTOR'S TERMS FOR THE 2017 TAX SALE

ALL TAX SALE BIDDERS ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS OF SALE. BY PAYING THE $100 REGISTRATION FEE, THEY AGREE TO ACCEPT THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE TAX SALE:

SECTION 14-818 OF THE TAX PROPERTY ARTICLE OF THE ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND PROVIDES THAT THE PAYMENT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE AND THE HIGH BID PREMIUM ON TAX SALES “SHALL BE ON THE TERMS REQUIRED BY THE COLLECTOR.”

All corporate bidders shall be registered in their full corporate names and must be qualified to conduct business as a domestic or foreign corporation in the State of Maryland. Corporate bidders must provide names and addresses of their resident agents and street addresses for their principal place of business. Agents of corporate bidders must identify themselves by full name and address and provide evidence of their authorization to bid the principal, if requested by the county.

Anne Arundel County reserves the right and authority to require proof of legal existence of any bidding entity and will limit entities to a single agent.

Each bidder represents and warrants that he/she is authorized to bid and is ready, willing, and financially able to consummate each sale in the price bid. Bidders acknowledge that this representation is material to the County's willingness to issue them a bidder number and to accept bids during the sale.

The purchaser shall complete the following steps prior to being permitted to bid in the auction:

Bidders must register on-line at Anne Arundel County's Tax Sale Website:

<http://aacoprod-inter.aacounty.org/TaxSaleInternet/welcome.do>

At the County's discretion, a supplemental tax sale of the unsold liens may be held approximately one week after the June 6, 2017 tax sale.

All bids must be made in good faith. Should a successful bidder not make full payment for any or all of the certificates that are awarded in the tax sale, including any associated High Bid Premiums, they will not be awarded any certificates and they may be prohibited from participating in future tax sales. The certificates would then be awarded to the next highest bidder.

No property will be sold for less than the advertised price. In the case where the bids are identical for the same property or properties, the winning bid will be awarded to the bidder with the first submission of the identical bid.

Utility deferment lien amounts shown reflect the current status of the lien. In instances where a utility lien is applicable, the amount due upon foreclosure is also indicated.

Pursuant to §14-817(b)(2) of the Maryland Tax-Property Article, Anne Arundel County will be imposing a high bid premium for this sale. The premium shall be 20% of the amount by which the highest bid exceeds 40% of the property's full cash value. The amount of the high bid premium will be collected and held by the County. This premium will be returned, without interest, upon redemption, foreclosure, or voided sale.

The herein described properties will be sold in fee simple unless the Collector of State and County taxes is notified in writing prior to the sale, of the existence of a leasehold interest (the Collector's Tax Roll not disclosing such fact), in which event the leasehold interest shall be offered for sale pursuant to §14-816 of the Maryland Tax-Property Article .

All sales are made at the risk of the purchaser and neither the Collector of State and County taxes, nor Anne Arundel County, makes any representation as to the status of the title of the various parcels nor shall the Collector of the State and County taxes be responsible to any purchasers for foreclosure costs, attorney's fee or other expenses in connection with any sale or sales made hereunder.

Anne Arundel County Code, §4-1-105(b) provides that The Interest Rate for Redemption of property Sold at Tax Sale shall be eighteen (18) Percent Per Annum.

The description of properties listed to be sold are the descriptions shown on the Collector's tax rolls, and may be further identified by the account number shown.

Anne Arundel County may inform property owners and other parties having an interest in the property of your bid prices, thereby enabling those parties to make an informed financial decision concerning redemption.

All successful bidders/purchasers will be notified by e-mail after the Tax Sale closes. Notification will include the tax sale amount and the amount due for the high bid premium. All bidders/purchasers must pay for their properties, including the high bid premium, by wire transfer not later than 3:00 p.m. Eastern time on June 7, 2017. Wire instructions will be provided to winning bidders. Payment may also be made by Cashier's check delivered in person to the Arundel Center, 44 Calvert Street, Room 110 in Annapolis by 3 p.m. Eastern time June 7, 2017.

The County will confirm with its bank the receipt of the payment.

Questions regarding the tax sale policies may be directed to Anne Arundel County's Tax Sale Department @ 410-222-1735.

Tax sale certificates will be mailed within six (6) months of the date of the sale.

The first day to file in Circuit Court to foreclose rights to redemption on properties sold at the 2017 tax sale is after six months from the date of sale (provided that all notice requirements under §14-833 have been met). Before filing, check with the tax sale desk (410-222-1735) to verify that the property has not been redeemed.

It is the responsibility of the purchasers to advise the County Tax Sale Coordinator (410- 222-1735, fax 410-222-1151) if expenses have incurred in any action or in preparation for action to foreclose the right of redemption. Anne Arundel County will not be held responsible for obtaining a release of lien for legal fees unless we have received the required documentation.

Pursuant to §14-843(a)(1) of the Maryland Tax-Property Article, "on redemption, the plaintiff or the holder of a certificate of sale may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in any action or in preparation for any action to foreclose the right of redemption" as provided in §14-843(a). If an action to foreclose has been filed, the plaintiff or holder of a certificate of sale may be reimbursed for expenses in accordance with §14-843(a)(4) & (5). If an action to foreclose the right of redemption has not been filed, and the property is redeemed more than 4 months after the date of the tax sale, the holder of a certificate of sale may be reimbursed for expenses in accordance with §14-843(a)(3) & (5). The plaintiff or holder of a certificate of sale is not entitled to be reimbursed for any other expenses or attorney's fees that are not included in §14-843(a).

Upon request by the County and/or the person redeeming, purchaser agrees to provide an itemized bill of charges levied in accordance with the above paragraph.

Sales in Anne Arundel County are made under the provisions of the Tax Property Article, Annotated Code of Maryland. §14-833 of said Tax-Property Article provides in part: At any time after six months from the date of sale a holder of any certificate of sale may file a complaint to foreclose all rights of redemption of the property to which the certificate relates (provided that all notice requirements under the section have been met). The right to redeem shall continue until finally barred by decree of the circuit court in which the foreclosure proceeding is filed. Unless a proceeding to foreclose the right of redemption is filed within two years of the date of the certificate of sale, the certificate is void and any right, title, and interest of the holder of the certificate of sale, in the property sold shall cease and all money received by the collector on account of the sale shall be deemed forfeited, and shall be applied by the collector on the taxes in arrears on the property.

VOIDED SALES – In the few occasions when an individual property sale must be voided and subsequently invalidated, the Tax Sale Purchaser, upon the surrender of the certificate, will receive a refund of the amount paid at Tax Sale (including bid premium), but will receive NO redemption interest, or reimbursement of attorney fees, title search or other costs. Events that invalidate a tax sale include, but are not limited to, bankruptcy filings prior to tax sale and transfer errors on the assessment records that cause a failure of notice to be sent to the true property owner. In the event that an individual property sale is voided, the purchaser will be notified and advised not to pursue any further foreclosure action or to incur additional expenses.
