Anne Arundel County Department of Inspections and Permits to Require Third Party Professional Liability Insurance and Hold Harmless
*Effective April 1, 2021

Beginning April 1, 2021, in a continued effort to improve the third party inspections program and protect public interest, the Department of Inspections and Permits will require proof of general liability and professional liability insurance for all third party inspections.

In addition, a written statement will be required to acknowledge the hold harmless policy.

Please see the attached Third Party Professional Liability Insurance form also available at the following link: <https://www.aacounty.org/departments/inspections-and-permits/permit-center/forms-and-publications/third-party-insurance.pdf>

For more information please contact Andrew McCarra, Engineer Manager at 410-222-7734 or ipmcca25@aacounty.org.
