The Crofton Christian Caring Council (CCCC) is a network of churches from Crofton, Gambrills, and Crownsville that pool resources to help residents in need. The CCCC generally provides financial assistance for imminent BGE shutoffs, home fuel replenishments, water turnoffs, pending eviction notices (all up to $300) and with vital prescription drugs. CCCC does not provide assistance with mortgage payments, hotel bills, phone or cable service. Primary areas of service:

- Crofton
- Gambrills
- Crownsville
- Odenton
- Millersville
- Davidsonville

With the exception of prescription drugs, no client, and anyone else in their household, may be helped more than once every 365 days by any of the churches in the CCCC network. Help given is paid directly to the utility, landlord, or drug store via check – but only when the client provides documentary evidence to CCCC that the entire amount needed to stop a utility shutoff, eviction, etc has been promised or paid. When going to one of the CCCC churches for financial assistance, please bring:

- Picture ID and proof of address
- Turn off notice, eviction notice, or prescription
- Referral from Community Action (if have fuel needs)
- Any promissory notes

HOPE for All 122 Roesler Road, Glen Burnie, MD 21060 410-766-0372.

HOPE For All is a unique resource in our area for those transitioning from homelessness, or just in need of a helping hand with the goal of creating a healthy home. Through community donations they collect and offer furniture and household goods, shoes, clothing, and personal care items to offer our clients the confidence to meet the needs of daily life. Most of you probably know of them and of course, Leo Zerhusen, their founder and director – salt of the earth. Clients must be referred and there is a form you need to fill out. They have a yard sale the second Saturday of every month from 8 -11 – great bargains and giveaways.
