

Religious Services

It is the policy of the AACDF to provide the greatest degree of religious opportunity and freedom consistent with the security needs of the institutions. Regular Catholic, Protestant, and Islamic services are held each week in conjunction with Bible Study groups.

Religious headwear is permitted providing it is verified as authentic and authorized by the Chaplain. Headwear fabricated from clothing or jail issue items is prohibited and will be considered contraband. Religious diets may be requested by submitting a request slip to the Chaplain. Religious medallions must be no larger than approximately the size of a quarter and the chain must be thin; i.e., not heavy-duty. Roped or nugget-type chains are not authorized.
