Anne Arundel County rests between Baltimore, Maryland and Washington, D.C. consists of 416 square miles (264,200 acres) of land area, approximately 530 linear miles of tidal shoreline, and 172 square miles of water area. It borders with Baltimore City, Baltimore and Howard counties to the north and northwest, Prince George’s County to the west and Calvert County to the south, and the beautiful Chesapeake Bay to the east.

The Anne Arundel County Police Department was founded in 1937 by an act of the Maryland State Legislature, in recognition of the need for better and more consistent police services for the citizens of the county. At that time, there were 21 officers on the Department, including the Chief.

The Police Department shall be responsible for preservation of the public peace, prevention of crime, apprehension of criminals, protection of the rights of persons and property and enforcement of the laws and the rules and regulations made in furtherance thereof.

Over the years, the Department has steadily grown into a large, modern organization—keeping pace with the growing population of Anne Arundel County. County businesses and communities have also grown with the increasing demand for products, services, and places to live.

This growth and development continues, and the police department remains efficient and effective to ensure that public safety needs are not compromised. The quality of life for citizens living and working in Anne Arundel County is enhanced by the Police Department adhering to high standards and practicing sound law enforcement.

On July 30, 1994, the Department received national accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) - www.calea.org

The overall purpose of the accreditation program is to improve the delivery of law enforcement services by providing standard policy guidelines required to attain and maintain accreditation, on a wide range of law enforcement topics.

The compliance process is continual and ongoing. The Department successfully completed its ninth on-site assessment in 2017.

STRATEGIC PLAN

The Police Department shall be responsible for preservation of the public peace, prevention of crime, apprehension of criminals, protection of the rights of persons and property and enforcement of the laws and the rules and regulations made in furtherance thereof.

VALUES

We of the Anne Arundel County Police Department recognize our contribution to the quality of life and safe environment in our community through the provision of professional law enforcement services. We will meet the challenge of providing these services by basing our thoughts and actions on a recognized set of values that operate within the organization. We see these values as a set of shared common beliefs that contribute to the success of the Department. From these values we derive our policies and procedures; therefore, faithful adherence to these beliefs by all personnel is paramount. We believe that the overall success of our organization, as well as its individual employees, both sworn and civilian, is achieved through our commitment to the following values. Written as the acronym POLICE:

Professionalism
We value the spirit of professionalism, having a clear sense of commitment, perspective and direction. It is developed by creating an environment that encourages teamwork, innovation and constant evaluation of ourselves. Our professional attitude is dedicated to quality, timeliness, and excellence in our service to our community.

Ethics
The citizens of Anne Arundel County are entitled to a police department that is beyond reproach. We must strive to provide excellent, impartial and courteous service to our community.

MISSION

To fight and drive down all crimes while working in partnership with our community.

Department Goals & Objectives (2018)

Goal #1: The Department will continue work to reduce Heroin use and distribution to prevent loss of life and the negative social impact the drug has on the lives of citizens within the county.

The Department considers addiction to and deaths from Heroin, other opioids, and other controlled dangerous substances to be a countywide crisis. Officers of the Department see firsthand every day that substance abuse is destroying families and taking the lives of citizens. Additionally, a significant portion of property crime and violent crime occurring in the county is a result of substance abusers.

A measure of the problem can be inferred through the examination of overdose deaths due to substance abuse. More overdose deaths in Anne Arundel County are attributed to heroin and opioid prescription medication, including fentanyl, than all non-opioid substances combined.

Law enforcement does not have the ability to eliminate the root cause in a citizen’s life that leads them to substance abuse, nor does the public want law enforcement to be intrusive. However, the following objectives are efforts the Department can and will focus on to abate the availability of illegal substances for abuse, and to help victims of substance abuse break their cycle of abuse.

It is not the primary objective of the Department to apprehend substance abusers for possession of controlled dangerous substance offenses. However, it is usually the only means available for the government to initiate a mandatory substance abuse recovery program, by presenting them before a judge who has the legal authority to require substance abusers to successfully complete a recovery program under the threat of incarceration.

The Department prefers that substance abusers, with the support of their family and friends, initiate and successfully complete recovery treatment without compelling the Department to intervene through criminal enforcement ensuing from their substance abuse.

Objectives:

- 1.1 Continue proactive enforcement efforts against the illicit use and distribution of Heroin.
  - In September 2017, consistent with Police Department Goals and Objectives and as a result of the escalating number of heroin overdoses in Anne Arundel County, the Department was compelled to establish the Fatal Overdose Unit (FOU). The Unit is responsible for taking the investigative lead in each fatal overdose that occurs within Anne Arundel County, regardless of the location, nature, and circumstances surrounding the fatality.
  - Patrol officers do an exceptional job conducting their on-scene and initial investigation, but the nature of their patrol assignment does not allow for unlimited flexibility to follow leads outside of their assigned patrol area, which frequently leads out of their district area, and out of Anne Arundel County.

- In order to ensure that no potential leads remain undiscovered, the Unit takes the investigative quality time and follow-up to interview family members and those reported to have been associated with the victim, in order to discover the source of the substance being abused.

- The FOU was preceded by the formation of the Anne Arundel County Opioid Task Force formed in January 2016, which now remains as a sub-element of the FOU. During 2018, FOU/ Anne Arundel County Opioid Task Force had two allied police department detectives (Annapolis Police Department, Baltimore City Police Department, and Anne Arundel Co. Sheriff’s Office) which help facilitate investigations into their respective jurisdictions.

- 1.2 Continue to partner our investigative assets with federal, state, and local law enforcement to identify sources and drug trafficking organizations and aggressively work to disrupt those organizations.

  - Cases that included pertinent information have been forwarded to the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) to be entered into various databases.

- 1.3 Continue to partner with health and other community agencies and organizations to share information and collaborate to develop holistic strategies.

  - The Department works closely with the Anne Arundel County Mental Health - Crisis Response System and has officers assigned to existing mental health professionals to form Crisis Intervention Teams (CIT). The teams respond to a variety of mental health crisis, including substance abuse overdose calls where police patrol officers have responded several times for an overdose victim. CIT usually responds as a follow-up and provides resources for mental health services.

  - The Department has been an active participant with the County Executive’s Office on the “Not My Child” series of community informational events with regard to sharing with the community the triggers for and the signs of opioid addiction.

Annual Report 2018 - 7
Goal #2: The Department will continue to reduce crime in the community.

The following objectives address aggressive proactive efforts the Department is taking against the most significant crime issues in Anne Arundel County.

Objectives:

- 2.1 Continue to work to reduce the criminal activity of repeat offenders and validated members of criminal gangs.

The same groups of individuals perpetrating crime are responsible for the majority of crime that occurs in any jurisdiction. This concept can be inferred through examining a National Institute of Justice study which suggests more than 70% in each crime type were being rearrested after release from incarceration for similar crimes.

Gangs are organized groups of individuals whose purpose “is to engage in criminal activity and the association uses violence or intimidation to further its criminal objectives.”

The Homeland Security & Intelligence Unit - Gang Squad is a specialty unit established to proactively suppress criminal gang activity, investigate gang related crimes, and gather intelligence of known or suspected gang members. Gang Squad duties included first and foremost, criminal gang suppression and the preservation of public safety. It also encompassed street-level narcotics enforcement, illegal firearms enforcement, criminal investigation, and special operations. The Gang Squad assists patrol officers by providing additional support to combat gang activity in high crime areas. In addition to these activities, the Gang Squad provides criminal intelligence, expertise, gang education and awareness to police officers, schools and citizen groups and community outreach.

From January 2018 to December 2018, Anne Arundel County criminal gang trends showed the number of known criminal gangs has decreased slightly. The approximate number of known criminal gang members or associates decreased from 855 in 2017 to 794 in 2018. The numbers are subject to change due to the fluidity and ever changing environment of criminal gangs. The most prevalent crimes street gangs commit are street-level drug trafficking, large-scale drug trafficking, assault, threats and intimidation, homicide, extortion and robbery.

Neighborhood-based "hybrid" gangs remain an emerging threat, while national-level street gangs have a moderate-to-high impact. During 2018, arrest trends showed 175 validated gang members being arrested for a variety of crimes. The number of gang members being arrested has significantly decreased from previous years. The top threats from gangs in 2018 were from the Black Guerrilla Family (BGF) Gang, the Bloods, and Mara Salvatrucha (MS 13).
2.2 Continue to work to reduce Commercial Robberies.

- In 2018, the Robbery Unit continued weekly, sometimes daily, communication with surrounding jurisdictions. Many of our serial robbery suspects were targeting surrounding jurisdictions as well. The free flow of communication allowed many of these cases to be successfully closed with arrests.

- The Robbery Unit continues to utilize the Gun Violence Reduction Grant (GVRG) (http://goccp.maryland.gov/grants/programs/gvrg/).

- It must be noted that the robbery incidents that occurred in 2018 are continually investigated beyond 31 December 2018; therefore, the case closure rate will likely increase.

2.3 Continue to work to reduce metal theft and related crimes within the County.

Metal theft crimes include but are not limited to theft from residential and commercial building sites involving: air conditioning units, batteries, automotive catalytic converters, copper plumbing tubing, electrical wire, aluminum, and steel.

It is relevant to note that not only are the builders victims through immediately being deprived of the materials that were uninstalled and stolen from the building site, but there is significant economic impact through the delay of the project completion. This may involve citizens that have to vacate their previous residence and now have an additional expense for housing that was not planned, or builders that may have to pay workers under contract that are not able to proceed with the building project because replacement materials have to be delivered, which ultimately cost the end consumer.

It is believed that the dramatic decrease in Metal Theft crimes is a result of the determination of the detectives, in conjunction with the County’s overall goal of helping substance abusers get the help they need to recover and lead lawful lives.

(The following section was initially published in the 2016 Annual Report but remains relevant to understanding the root cause/trigger for individuals committing this type of crime.)

- In support of the correlation that theft proceeds are directly related to heroin usage in 2016, the following excerpts were from Metal Theft Unit reports:

  - one individual criminally charged for metal theft stated the reason he was a part of the group committing thefts was due to his heroin/opiate addiction

  - One person confessed to being responsible for all the battery thefts they were accused of, because they had an opiate addiction problem which was caused by prescription medicine from a previous injury suffered in an automobile accident

  - Detectives were specifically contacted on this issues and advised that roughly 80% of those suspects that agree to talk to detectives, do admit to having some type of substance abuse problem and of those a good majority are opiate addiction. The trigger for most developing an addiction was that they were severely injured in a vehicle crash or had some severe injury where they were prescribed pain medication for a significant period of time, they ultimately became addicted to, and subsequently switched to heroin due to a lower cost and easier to obtain over prescription medication.
2.4 Continue to work on reducing Thefts from Automobiles (TFAs) within the County.

- Thefts from automobiles routinely occur as a result of consistently:
  - Not securing and locking all car doors, and/or
  - Leaving item(s) of value in plain view.

- Thefts from automobiles rarely occur where windshields are broken to gain access to the vehicle's interior, and/or there is nothing of value in plain view.

- The Police Department has had an ongoing aggressive public service announcement campaign to educate citizens to remember to remove all valuables from cars and lock car doors, using:
  - Social media:
    - Facebook
    - Twitter
    - Instagram
    - YouTube
  - News Media
    - Television News
    - Radio News
  - Mobile Variable Message Sign Board Trailers
    - Strategically located in areas with a high rate of TFAs.
  - Public Alert Systems:
    - Nixle
      - www.nixle.com
      - (Nixle is expected to be phased out with a new system in the future.)
2.5 Continue community oriented and predictive policing strategies “to fight and drive down crime”.

The Anne Arundel County Police Department’s mission (“To fight and drive down crime in partnership with the community”) is the overarching framework from which the Department assesses the needs of the community in order to serve and prioritize its efforts to deliver the best possible law enforcement services from its available resources.

The Department must always allocate police officer resources to handle reactive emergency calls for service when summoned by the dramatically growing community.

Although reactive response to calls is an essential responsibility of law enforcement in general, it is not a strategy “to drive down crime”; there are crimes that could potentially have been prevented by apprehending repeat offenders. It is believed that the majority of crime is perpetrated by a small group of repeat offenders. Three approaches the Department uses to drive down crime are:

1. Predictive Policing:
   a. Strategy:

   … [Use] data and analyzes patterns to understand the nature of [related crimes.] Officers devise strategies and tactics to prevent [further criminal activity and apprehend the criminal(s).] …

   b. Implementation:

   The Police Department command staff and Crime Analysis Unit meet via conference call daily to go over crime, in order to anticipate where crime may occur and effectively deploy Department resources and address the problem.

2. Strong Police Presence:

   Strategy:

   i. To increase the patrol force of the Department in order to project a significant and uninterrupted police patrol presence in the community, suitable to deter criminal activity through perpetrator fear of detection and apprehension.

   ii. To increase the apprehension effectiveness of patrol by having a suitable number of officers available to establish a parameter and saturate the area around a crime scene immediately after a crime is reported/detected.
3. Special Investigations:

Strategy:

· To proactively investigate crimes being carried out by small groups of repeat criminals perpetrating the majority of victimization in a given area.

· All crime is investigated; however, the most aggressive application of resources is projected at the small groups of repeat criminals.

4. Community Policing:

a. Philosophy:

Community policing is a philosophy that promotes organizational strategies, which support the systematic use of partnerships and problem solving techniques, to proactively address the immediate conditions that give rise to public safety issues, such as crime, social disorder, and fear of crime.

b. Strategy:

Seek and obtain community support of the police department in general and crime information/leads from the community to solve crime and proactively prevent the occurrence of crime.

The Department actively uses predictive policing and varying degrees of each of the other crime fighting approaches to attain the most value to the public out of existing resources, and frequently calls on the resources of other government departments.

Every resource of the Department serve the Department for the purpose of delivering law enforcement services to the citizens of Anne Arundel County.
Goal #3: The Department will continue to build community relationships by improving the ability to communicate, providing transparency, and increasing public confidence in the Police Department.

The Department exists to abate crime in order to positively contribute to the quality of life for the citizens of Anne Arundel County through the delivery of professional law enforcement services.

The Department recognizes that it cannot effectively and single handedly fight crime without a partnership between it and the law abiding community it serves. It cannot foster that partnership if it is not trusted and its law enforcement efforts are not supported.

The Department accepts that it, not the community, will have to actively take steps to positively engage the community to build trust and support of its law enforcement efforts. It is hopeful that as time passes and trust is continually established and recognized, an ever increasing portion of the law abiding community will also actively share efforts to engage with the Department.

The Department is responsible for taking steps internally to maintain and ensure that officers are delivering professional law enforcement services to the citizens of Anne Arundel County.

The Department has benefited from the strong leadership of the faith based community and seeks to continue developing those associations to maximize the Department’s efforts in engaging the law abiding citizens of Anne Arundel County in order to build a stronger crime fighting and crime prevention partnership.

The Department’s crime fighting efforts are also indirectly impacted by the faith based communities because they provide many essential services to underserved communities, which ultimately helps reduce crime by helping people with their root problem.

Objectives:

- 3.1 Continue to build and maintain mutually beneficial relationships with the community.

  - Police Community Relations Council (PCRC)
    - “The Anne Arundel County Police-Community Relations Council (PCRC) is a voluntary, independent, self-constituted advisory body. The PCRC exists with the purpose of promoting the concept that citizens, communities, and the police have a common goal. This goal is the maintenance of law and order, reduction of crime, and the protection of the community. The PCRC promotes the relationship and understanding necessary to effectively attain this purpose.”
    - PCRC meetings are once a month at each of the four police district stations in the evening.
    - 2018 marked the 52st Anniversary of the PCRC.

- Youth Activities Program (YAP)

  The focus and mission of the Youth Activities Program is to provide the youth in the surrounding communities with opportunities that may not be affordable in some circumstances. The goal is to build positive and trusted relationships between the Police Department and communities by way of reaching out and interacting with the children, schools, churches and other groups and organizations willing to help and/or partnering with YAP.

  YAP is funded by the Local Development Council (LDC), therefore all fees for activities are covered by the LDC as well as the employees hired for the unit. The unit is funded to have 4 employees total, a Director and 3 Case workers.

  The areas of responsibility served are within a 3 mile radius of the Maryland Live Casino which include parts of Severn, Ft. Meade and Hanover. However, the areas of concentration that have been mainly focused on at initial start had been: Meade Village, Pioneer City, Still Meadows and Spring Meadows. The program has built relationships with Meade Middle, Van Bokkelen Elementary and Hebron-Harman Elementary; it is still expanding.

Overview:

Crime data provides a quality of life indicator to the jurisdiction for which the data represents. It is generally assumed that when overall crime is decreasing the police department is doing its job effectively. Yet, it is plausible for the police department to utilize its available resources effectively and still not have enough staffing resources to visibly impact/influence crime trends.

Influence of crime statistics by police effort:

Regardless as to whether or not the trend of crime data is increasing or decreasing, the Police Department will always assume responsibility for and continue to project its resources for the continual improvement of the quality of life for the citizens we serve. The police department can and will do everything to drive crime down.

Socioeconomic influence on crime:

There are a myriad of socioeconomic conditions that sway the increase or decrease in the number of individuals that turn towards crime rather than legitimately filling their basic needs. Additionally, crimes against persons are frequently poor interpersonal decisions by otherwise “nice” people that go awry. It is self-evident that the police as a profession cannot prevent the root issues that causes one to choose to violate the law; however, the police department will do everything it can to fight all crime.

PART I CRIMES TOTAL 11,182 12,591 -1,409 -11.2%

PART II - SIMPLE ASSAULTS 4,731 3,926 805 20.5%

The FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program collects and commonly publishes all Part I defined crimes and only the Part II crime of “Simple Assaults”, for nationwide statistical comparison.

The Anne Arundel County Fire’s Marshal’s Office investigates Arson in Anne Arundel County; therefore, that Part I data is not included in the above table.

“These offenses were chosen because they are serious crimes, they occur with regularity in all areas of the country, and they are likely to be reported to police. The Part I offenses are defined as:…”

The Total CAD Incidents are comprised of calls from the public and self-initiated calls by officers.

Call Taker Facilitated [incidents] are comprised of incidents that were facilitated through a 911 Call Taker and are predominantly citizen initiated incidents.

Explanation:

- The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) (https://www.theiACP.org/) consider a Reactive call for service to be a CAD incident initiated directly from someone outside of the police department; therefore, they consider only those calls/incidents where a Call Taker is listed in the CAD data.

- IACP ultimately uses the total Call Taker incidents to extrapolate officer Uncommitted Time [Proactive] and Administrative labor [time], to assess officer workload, et cetera.
Strength:

- The IACP conducts staffing studies of police departments across the United States. IACP appears to have chosen a uniform approach to assess the staffing analysis of its police department customers by using the Call Taker inclusion approach. Each police department has customized call disposition codes unique to the evolving needs of their department and the department’s need to categorize data. It is impractical for the IACP to abandon a uniform analysis method, which would probably skew assessment results across their clients.

- Since the data (calls for service from the public) being considered is externally generated to the police department, there is no influence the department can take to alter them; whereas, officers and supervisors can increase or curtail the number of self-initiated incidents they report, thereby inflating or deflating the perception of workload/activity.

Weakness:

- The method relies on someone outside the department telephoning a 911 Call Taker, and does not consider incidents from citizens where they contact a police officer directly to initiate their complaint; the officer in turn contacts police communications directly, bypassing the Call Taker, and the incident is entered into CAD by a Police Communications Operator.

- The method overlooks some police officer activity that by the nature of the offense would have been reported by a citizen/passerby to a police call taker, but is disqualified from inclusion because a police officer observed it first.

The Chief Executive of any organization leads by setting the tone of the work efforts for those under their command; that tone is a reflection of their personal values (who they are and what they believe). As a citizen, it is relevant to know a little about the individual who is entrusted to be your Chief of Police.

Timothy J. (“Tim”) Altomare was appointed by County Executive Schuh in December 2014 to serve as Police Chief of the Anne Arundel County Police Department. (Chief Altomare was subsequently reappointed by County Executive Steuart Pittman on May 9th 2019.)

Chief Altomare has over 26 years experience as a police officer in Anne Arundel County, which began as an officer in the Annapolis Police Department before deciding to start a career with the Anne Arundel County Police Department as a patrol officer.

Immediately prior to his appointment as Chief, he commanded the Northern District and subsequently Southern District. Each district had measurable crime reductions. While Northern District Commander, which borders Baltimore City, he directly oversaw crime suppression, investigative, and quality of life and intelligence led policing efforts of approximately 120 sworn personnel and civilians serving a multicultural population of over 80,000 citizens.

The Chief has served in numerous assignments throughout his career, which has exposed him to all facets of the Police Department’s operations. The assignments include: patrol operations, uniformed drug interdiction, covert narcotics investigations, criminal investigation, supervising district problem solving efforts, and as a team leader on the Quick Response [SWAT] Team. He has been decorated 3 times for risking his life to save another.

Chief Altomare earned Bachelor and Master of Science Degrees in Management from The Johns Hopkins University and is a graduate of the basic and advanced Police Executive Development (POLEX) courses of the Pennsylvania State University's Justice & Safety Institute.

He made his position clear when his selection for Chief was announced by County Executive Schuh; he is committed to the County's fight against drugs, specifically heroin. It is estimated that narcotics drive 85% of crime in the county, as a result of substance abusers needing the means to get their next dose of substance. The Chief knows and understands that the Police Department needs help and cannot solve the substance abuse problem by “arresting our way out of it”; it requires a life long commitment that has to include comprehensive prevention and treatment.

The Chief believes strongly in and is committed to the Community Policing philosophy. The Department implements the two key components of the philosophy holistically. The first component, creating and sustaining quality partnerships with communities, is implemented in both residential and commercial neighborhoods. The Department strives to bridge the gaps between members of the community, when they exist. The second component, problem solving, involves analyzing the overarching root issues from several perspectives in order to seek the most thoughtful approach possible. Along with the tenets of Community Policing, the Chief directs the resources of the Department to invest in the children, who are the future of the community and their leaders, through several youth programs.
