RESULTS

Youth are Successful in School	Youth are Safe and Healthy	Youth Have Opportunities for Employment or Career Readiness	Families are Healthy and Economically Stable	Communities are Safe

SHARED PRIORITIES AND STRATEGIES

1 Coordinate support systems for youth based on trusted relationships

2 Enhanced, positive pathways to economic opportunity for youth and the adults in their lives

3 Proven programs led by individuals and organizations willing to upend the status quo

4 Safe, welcoming and hope-filled spaces in communities disproportionally impacted by youth violence

- Coordinate services to meet basic needs, focusing on public and subsidized housing communities
- Build trust with Annapolis residents
- Improve awareness and utilization of available resources
- Develop leadership capacity of youth to address issues in their neighborhoods
- Promote the adoption of Evidence-Based Practices (EBPs) for prevention, intervention, enforcement/suppression, and re-entry
- Utilize placed-based and two-generation approaches in public and subsidized housing communities
- Develop and implement programming focused on interrupting and reducing violence
- Increase collaboration, braid funding and resources between youth and family serving community agencies
- Embed a trauma-informed approach in our Coordinated Systems of Care
- Increase the capacity of community-serving agencies with a focus on leadership development, program measurement, planning, and resource development
- Bring together leaders and concerned residents across Annapolis to raise awareness and address systemic barriers, focusing on racism and inequality
- Create safe, vibrant public spaces for recreational use in communities with the highest rates of youth violence
- Create a robust network of bilingual speakers
- Develop a CRICT system for the city of Annapolis
- Expand outreach to potential partners in the county
- Meet Annapolis residents where they are
- Create a universal intake to expand case management capacity
- Reduce barriers that prevent youth from actualizing their goals
