COMPLAINTS

The commission received two formal written complaints of ethics violations in 2022.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

The commission is charged with the responsibility of reviewing and making available for public inspection, each financial disclosure (FDS) and conflict of interest (COI) statement received from required County employees, elected officials, candidates for elected office, compensated and uncompensated board members, and covered volunteers. Each statement is reviewed for completeness, accuracy, and for potential conflicts of interest. In 2022 the commission received 273 disclosure statements as follows:

Regular employees and covered volunteers	244
Candidates	29

Each statement of covered filers was reviewed for completeness and potential conflicts as required by law and employee filers were directed to correct any omissions or deficiencies. All disclosure statements, including corrections and additions, are available for inspection and copying with advance notice at the commission’s office as required by law. There were no late filing fees assessed in 2022.

There were 10 requests to examine/copy 10 separate disclosure filings. EDUCATION

2022 On-line Training Completed - 139 Employees and 137 Board and Commission Members

Training includes the use of an online multimedia training course as well as printed hand-outs and copies of an employee brochure summarizing the ethics law’s conflicts of interest provisions. The on-line Ethics Training Course allows everyone to satisfy the mandatory ethics training requirements, at their convenience, on-line. The training course takes about an hour to complete and consists of several chapters with a few questions at the end of each chapter. Upon successful completion (score of 80% or better) employees are able to print out a Certificate of Completion. The commission also maintains an email list of County employees who successfully complete the training. Training is required by law for all employees, board and commission members, and elected officials, within 60 days of hire, appointment or taking office.

The ethics commission provides copies of the brochure, What employees need to know about the Public Ethics Law to the Office of Personnel and other departments and agencies upon request. The brochure is also available on-line on the Ethics Commission website at <https://www.aacounty.org/boards-and-commissions/ethics-commission/forms-and-publications/employee-ethics-brochure.pdf>.

The commission also updates and publishes two other brochures: What You Need to Know about the Public Ethics Law- Lobbyists and What You Need to Know about the Public Ethics Law- Vendors and Contractors. Both brochures are available at the ethics commission’s office and are distributed freely upon request.

NEW FORMS

No new ethics forms were created in 2022.

BUDGET

Saving money while performing the duties assigned to the commission by the Anne Arundel County Charter has always been a priority. Use of email has largely replaced paper - the commission sends all notifications and disclosure forms to County employees by email in lieu of first-class mail. The commission also requests all disclosure filers (covered volunteers and lobbyists) to accept email notifications and to access all forms via the commission’s website. Many of these filers have agreed to accept email only notifications. The anticipated budget for FY2024 is unchanged.

The commission schedules its regular public meetings for the second Monday of each month at 4:00 p.m. in the conference room at the commission’s office on an “as needed or as requested basis”. Decisions on whether a physical meeting is called is made by the commission’s chair. Any citizen or employee is welcome to attend the open session of the meeting or make an appointment to address the commission concerning any ethics issue. Much of the commission’s work is done by email, telephone conference and Zoom meetings. Contingent meetings are also scheduled for specific dates, but are only held if specially called by the chair.
