THURSDAY, JULY 30th

The Kennedy Center—“Mrs. Doubtfire, The Musical”

Washington, D.C.

Travel today to our nation’s capital, Washington, D.C., and spend a delightful afternoon with the cast of “Mrs. Doubtfire, The Musical” at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Based on the popular film, “Mrs. Doubtfire, The Musical” is a heartfelt and hilarious story about an out-of-work actor named Daniel Hillard who will go to any length to be with his children after a messy divorce. He transforms himself into Euphegenia Doubtfire, a Scottish nanny, and takes on a new persona in a desperate effort to stay in his children’s lives. The musical explores themes of family, identity, and love while highlighting the impact of divorce on both parents and children. Daniel, through his alter ego Mrs. Doubtfire, learns valuable lessons about fatherhood and the true meaning of family as the story unfolds. Critics have described it as a feel-good, family-friendly comedy with heartwarming moments and plenty of laughs! Before the show, enjoy a delicious luncheon at Gadsby’s Tavern Restaurant in Alexandria, Virginia. A U.S. National Historic Landmark, Gadsby’s Tavern Restaurant has been offering fine dining since 1770. Please provide a meal choice when making your reservations. Totem Pole Playhouse—“South Pacific”

Fayetteville, PA

Travel to Totem Pole Playhouse in Fayetteville, Pennsylvania and spend an afternoon with the cast of “South Pacific”. Rodgers and Hammerstein’s “South Pacific” is set on a tropical island in the Pacific during World War II, where US Navy nurse Nellie Forbush falls in love with local plantation owner Emile De Becque. Meanwhile, Lt. Joe Cable has fallen in love with young Liat, daughter of the irrepressible Bloody Mary. Both couples’ happiness is threatened by the realities of the war and by their own prejudices. Also, on the island there are dozens of locals and the Navy, all of whom seem to break into glorious song and dance at just the right moments. The revival includes such classic songs as “Wash that Man Right Outta My Hair,” “Some Enchanted Evening,” “Younger than Springtime,” and “Nothing Like a Dame”. Before the show, enjoy a delicious family style lunch (Roast Turkey with Dressing and Baked Ham) at Hickory Bridge Farm in Orrtanna, Pennsylvania.
